MAVRUD II, like I, is loosely based on rāg Dipak, whose character is Fire. The relationship is not strict, though the opening is an unmeasured exploration of the notes, rather like the alāp of rāg. Thereafter Mavrud II goes its own way, though with some reference to rāg techniques.

INSTRUMENTATION

Tenor trombone - straight, Harmon and bucket mutes

Percussion (1 player)

Vibraphone - pairs of hard and soft centred beaters

Large tam-tam (at least 36") and

Small tam-tam (OR medium sized heavy gauge suspended cymbal) - medium and soft beaters

Large suspended cymbal, lighter gauge

Anvil (ie, a heavy metal sound producer of free choice)
